

Kimberly Greder, Assistant professor of human development and family studies; Family life Extension state specialist has received the Iowa State University Foundation Award for Early Achievement in Extension or Professional Practice. This Award recognizes a faculty or staff member who has demonstrated outstanding accomplishments in extension or professional practice unusually early in his or her professional career.

Greder has designed, secured external funding for, and led programming efforts on topics of parenting for families with young children, food insecurity, parent education, parenting in different cultures, adolescent development and the effects of media violence on children. She assembles multidisciplinary teams that work to improve the lives of families in Iowa.”